Stoors Hod No Show Against Rhode Island Aggies.

The annual football game between he Connecticut Agricultural college sam from Storrs and the Rhode Island team from Storrs and the Rhode Island Agricultural college took place at Kingston, R. L. Saturday. The Storrs team made a sorry showin, being defeated by the score of 51 to 0. Halves of 30 and 25 minutes were played. By winning Saturday's game the Rhode Island institution has an unbroken record of five straight games with the Storrs bunch, dating from 1905. The Connecticut team has falled to show much strength this season by reason of the loss by graduation of a number of its best players.

Considerable discussion is resulting over the relative merits of the two elevens that are scheduled to line up for a footbail game Thanksgiving day on Windham field. There were those who claimed to be willing to back the Cyclones, the new team, as a 5 to 1 favorite over the Dyahouse eleven. That might naturally be the inference to be drawn if the alleged lineup of the Dyahouse crowd was to be what some seem to think, but when City Shoriff William S. Congdon, captain of the chemistry outfit, finally announces the "real thing" not a few of those who have already made small wagers will be hustling about to hedge a mite. The husty leader of the Dyers' eleven is not going to take any chances on losing the hard earned laurels that are such an important part of their stock in trade.

ock in trade. Captain Baker of the Cyclones said unday afternoon that there would be othing to it. It will be remembered not be said the same thing a year ago bout the Owl eleven, but then it must a admitted that the aggregation that e now has the distinction to lead is of ich better material.
